

DISCLOSURE OF POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Participants in a continuing medical education activity should have advance knowledge of any relationship or financial interest that could influence the presentation given by a speaker, a group leader or a resource person.

By relationship, we mean, for example, acting as an advisory board member for a pharmaceutical company; by financial interest, we mean, for example, accepting an invitation, a gratuity or a fee for services rendered, royalties, research funds from a commercial firm, having a controlling interest in a company.

The purpose of such disclosure is not to prevent someone with a conflict of interest from giving a talk, but rather to reveal in advance all possible relationships or financial interests. Once these facts are explicitly known, participants may make their own informed decisions about the content of the presentation itself.

To be completed by each resource person and scientific committee member.

Resource person's name: _____

Activity: _____

Statement

I have a relationship with or financial interests in a commercial firm or I receive compensation or royalties from a commercial firm.

YES NO

Type of relationship and name of the commercial firm(s) (pharmaceutical or other):*

Signature : _____ Date : _____

* The presenter must disclose without fail all potential conflicts of interest, verbally and visually (slide) at the beginning of the presentation and in the abstract booklet.

Title of the lecture: Role of Penicillin in Infection Management by Dr. M. Bacteria et al.

Examples : No conflict of interest to declare
 Conflict of interest: I work as a consultant for XYZ Inc.
 Conflict of interest: I was recently invited by XYZ Inc.
 Conflict of interest: I currently have one or more research grants from XYZ Inc.

If there is no abstract booklet, please make this statement verbally or visually (slide) at the start of the presentation.